A record dry August fueled 1,736 fires which burned 3 million acres, destroyed 6 billion board feet of timber, and claimed 85 lives (78 firefighters). The smoke spread 1/3 the way around the world producing dark days in the U.S. and Canada. August 22, 1816 - Damaging frosts occurred in low places from New England to North Carolina in what was called the "Year-Without-a-Summer." *Source: www.intellicast.com
